

Letter from Mr J. A. Flynn, Amalgamated Society of Tailors and Tailoresses to James Middleton (General Secretary of the Labour Party), 1914

Dec 5 1914

Dear Sir

Just a word to remind you, that we are very anxiously awaiting a favourable decision of your Committee Re the question of "Army Clothing Contracts" as the matter is one of pressing importance to us and Reports from our Branches are showing that unemployment amongst our members is steadily becoming more acute.

Yours Truly, Mr J.S. Middleton. J. A. Flynn.
